

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you I have not had any phone calls to disrupt my supper or anything else for almost a year now. I for one do not want anyone to call me. If I want to talk to someone I will call them. Please do not change this rulling.